"FOREVER FILMS"

A Filmmaker Networking Fundraiser Spotighting the Best of Independent Moviemaking

November 10th, 2006 7:30 pm

Blue Line, 350 Foreman Ave, Lexington, KY

Lexington, KY - - - Everyone is invited to an evening of films, music and mingling. The Prosper Media Group, a Lexington-based multimedia production company, will premiere the short film pilot Forever Yesterday, and a special documentary about producing a film in Kentucky. In addition, regional filmmakers are invited to submit production trailers to the address above. Indie trailers will be shown throughout the event.

Forever Yesterday is a dark, psychological, love story, based on the tragic "Barbarosa Murders" of April 12, 2003. The story follows the destructive cycle of lead character, Christian through his therapy sessions. The characters provide "instant conflict" leaving the audience split on who the story's villain truly is. Directed by Kyle Lake, the unique shooting style and thriller ending have left Forever Yesterday within a genre unto itself. The short film pilot is ambitious and unbelievable on such a minimal budget and covers a lot of ground.

Scheduled to be in attendance will be the full cast and crew from Forever Yesterday, as well as many other regional actors, writers, producers, musicians, and directors. There will be live musical performances by Bryan Himes, two-time winner of the Lexington Blues Challenge, Joe Hedges, whose singles with July For Kings topped national charts; and Ryan Templeton, an astounding performer who is gaining notice for his collaborations with major producers.

Doors will open at 7:30 PM, and the event will be hosted at the Blue Line at 350 Foreman Avenue in Lexington, KY.

All guests are invited to dress up as their favorite movie characters, and there will be food and cocktails available as well.

The event, the first of its kind in the region, will be one of the most exciting of the year. Don't miss it. Please RSVP to fyfilm01@prospertmg.com or call 859-400-0136. Admission is $5 and space will be limited, so please come on time to avoid missing any of the excitement.
